

NAVIGATING COMPLEXITY | Israel as a Case Study

POWERED BY THE iCENTER

Gain tools and frameworks to navigate complexity thoughtfully and responsibly. Through music, art, commentary, and the stories of Israelis, we'll explore themes of democracy, gender equality, religious expression, race, and more with experts in the field. Develop your own values, create experiences to teach others what you are learning, and deepen your relationship with Israel.

DATES AND TIMES

From December 2020 through March 2021, we will meet live online:

WEDNESDAYS AT 5PM PT | 7PM CT | 8PM ET

DECEMBER

MY ISRAEL STORY

DEC 9 | 90 mins

Identifying and sharing our personal Israel stories opens up room for reflection, observation, and growth.

DIVERSE NARRATIVES

DEC 16 | 60 mins

Exploring the many diverse vantage points, perspectives, and tellings of stories that make up contemporary Israel.

JANUARY

USING VALUES AS A TOOL FOR ENGAGEMENT

JAN 13 | 90 mins

Recognizing our shared values allows us to better understand each other, even when we do not agree.

THE DYNAMICS OF RELIGIOUS EXPRESSION

JAN 27 | 60 mins

Discovering the myriad branches of Jewish and non-Jewish practice throughout Israel.

FEBRUARY

INCLUSION AND EXCLUSION

FEB 10 | 90 mins

Examining minority groups in Israel's past and present, and the ongoing tension between community, belonging, and "otherness."

EMPATHY AND RESILIENT LISTENING

FEB 24 | 60 mins

Developing tools for listening and building empathy for differing viewpoints and perspectives allows us to deepen our relationships with each other.

MARCH

GAL GADOT AND OTHER "WONDER WOMEN"

MAR 10 | 90 mins

Highlighting the social, cultural, and artistic achievements of extraordinary Israeli women who are redefining roles in the 21st century.

THE ART OF QUESTIONS

MAR 24 | 60 mins

Learning both what to ask and how to ask helps us engage in deeper conversations.

SPACE IS LIMITED | Register by November 6