- * The haftarah for Shabbat Hanukkah always takes precedence. When Rosh Chodesh Tevet or Machar Chodesh fall on Shabbat Chanukkah, the first and last verses of the haftarot for Rosh Chodesh and/or Machar Chodesh may be added at the end of the haftarah reading. Reform Luach deliberations recently decided to call attention to the two-day observance of Rosh Chodesh in 30-day months (the actual turn of the month falls during the 30th day of the previous month, so that both the 30th day and the first of the new month are considered Rosh Chodesh).
  - ** The haftarah for Shabbat Rosh Chodesh takes precedence.
  - *** Alternate readings from Mishkan HaNefesh are Gen. 1:1-2:3; Gen. 18:16-33; Isa. 55:6-13; Neh. 8:1-10.
