

Miami-Dade Introduction to Judaism

Clergy Form

Fall 2018 / Spring 2019

Introduction to Judaism students are required to meet with a rabbi or cantor prior to enrolling in the course. Your clergy will serve as a guide and advisor as you learn about Judaism.

We hope that you will attend Shabbat and holiday services, as well as other synagogue events, so that you may meet synagogue members and get a better sense of the community.

If you are considering conversion, you will work closely with your rabbi or cantor to clarify the requirements and determine the timing of your conversion.

It is the policy of the Central Conference of American Rabbis to charge no fee for their role as a sponsoring rabbi or for conversion.

For any questions or concerns, please call Linda Levin at 212-452-6715. We look forward to welcoming you to Introduction to Judaism!

Candidate for Introduction to Judaism:

Name: _____ Learning Partner: _____

Address: _____ Home Phone: _____

City/State/Zip: _____ Best Phone Number: _____

Email: _____

I have met with and agree to work with this candidate (and learning partner) for the duration of their participation in Fall 2018 or Spring 2019 Miami-Dade Introduction to Judaism.
(Please circle one.)

Date: _____ Clergy Signature: _____

Congregation: _____

Union for Reform Judaism – Miami-Dade Introduction to Judaism

llevin@urj.org

Telephone: (212) 452-6715

